

Local Solutions to the Energy Dilemma

April 27-29, 2006 in NYC

A Peak Oil Conference for New York City

Sponsored by Peak Oil NYC, Local Energy Solutions LLC and the Five Borough Institute (a 501c3 organization)

The Conference has two goals:

1. To inform the public that energy prices are rising because of "Peak Oil", the point at which production stops increasing and goes into permanent decline.
2. To discuss realistic, sustainable local responses to the situation.
